

Faculty Meetings: From Dissemination to Engagement

MARCH 15 | TONAWANDA CSD

Tonawanda High School Library, 600 Fletcher St., Tonawanda

Mary Beth Scullion, Jessica Lyons, Rachel Wagner, Tonawanda City Schools

Learn how a secondary principal transformed traditional school faculty meetings into an engaging forum where teachers are able to connect, share, and grow as educational professionals. Create an outline to inject active engagement into your next faculty meeting.

Innovative Approaches to ELL Instruction

MARCH 30 | SAANYS HEADQUARTERS

SAANYS Headquarters, 8 Airport Park Blvd., Large Conference Room, Latham

Rachel Stead, Shenendehowa CSD

There has never been a more complex or exciting time to be an educator of English language learners. Come to this interactive workshop to share the latest learning about both teaching and leading ELL/ENL. Current approaches, instructional strategies and pedagogy will be shared, as well as tips for effectively leading ELL/ENL initiatives. An overview of current shifts and recent developments in English language learning will provide the backdrop for our conversation.

Just Breathe: Mindfulness for School Leaders

MARCH 31 | SUFFOLK

Western Suffolk BOCES, 31 Lee Avenue, Wheatley Heights

Joseph Sapienza, Jericho CSD

School leaders face a wide array of responsibilities and demands. A mindful approach to leadership increases passion for your work, compassion for stakeholders, and an ability to empower others in your organization. This workshop will equip you with the tools to begin a journey towards mindful leadership.

From Administrator to Connected Lead Learner

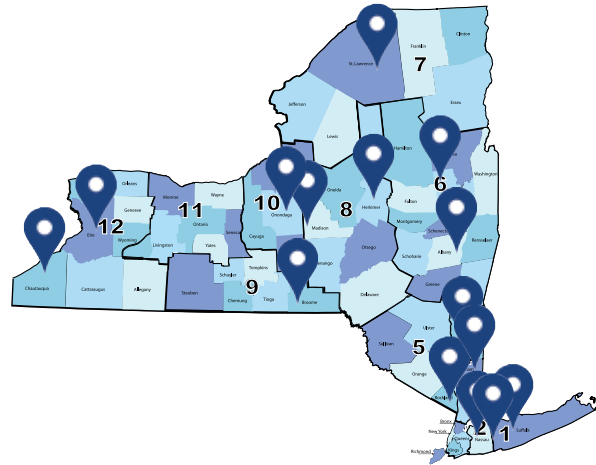

MARCH 31 | 2 LOCATIONS

WSHWE BOCES, 27 Gick Road, Saratoga Springs

SLL BOCES, 40 West Main St., Conference Room B, Canton

Lisa Meade, Corinth CSD and Victoria Day, Gouverneur CSD

Every leader needs to use their voice while leading positive change in his/her building. This presentation will address how to use the various tools to create a PLN (Personal, Professional, Learning Network), connect with other lead learners, and enhance the capacity and professional capital of your students, parents, and staff.

MILLBROOK | LIVERPOOL
JERICHO | HERKIMER-ONEIDA
POUGHKEEPSIE | LAGRANGEVILLE
WEST SENECA | CARMEL | JOHNSON CITY
FARMINGDALE | TONAWANDA | ALBANY
SUFFOLK | SARATOGA | CANTON

Presented by:

TO REGISTER, VISIT:
WWW.SAANYS.ORG
AND CLICK ON
PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Local Practitioners Sharing
Local Best Practices

MILLBROOK | LIVERPOOL
JERICHO | HERKIMER-ONEIDA
POUGHKEEPSIE | LAGRANGEVILLE
WEST SENECA | CARMEL | JOHNSON CITY FARMINGDALE
TONAWANDA | ALBANY | SUFFOLK | SARATOGA | CANTON

TO REGISTER, VISIT:
WWW.SAANYS.ORG
AND CLICK ON
PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Presented by:

Making Teacher Evaluations More Efficient

MARCH 2 | MILLBROOK CSD

Millbrook Middle School, 43 Alden Place, Room 25, Millbrook

Cindy Gallagher, Educational Vistas and Dr. Kathleen Affigne, Millbrook CSD

Districts are challenged to find efficient ways to manage complex APPR processes and components. This presentation will demonstrate district use of StaffTrac to integrate multiple tasks in one comprehensive system. Using this system, independent and peer observers have a seamless way to follow district negotiated processes and principals can manage observations and SLOs effectively for potential professional and instructional benefit.

An Innovative Model to Build Teacher Leaders

MARCH 3 | LIVERPOOL CSD

Liverpool CSD, District Office Board Room 195, Blackberry Road, Liverpool

Maureen Patterson and Steven Garraffo, Liverpool CSD

This presentation will exemplify the work of the Central New York Leadership Development Program (CNYLDP), guiding the participants through the key elements of this innovative program that uses district administrators to lead the professional development of teacher leaders. Coursework, cohort projects, technology, and instructional strategies will be used to demonstrate the CNYDLP framework.

Connected Leadership: Using 21st Century Tools to Communicate, Collaborate, and Inspire

MARCH 3 | JERICHO CSD

Jericho Middle School, 99 Old Cedar Swamp Road, Computer Room, Jericho

Don Gately, Jericho CSD

We'll consider essential questions about the meaning of connected leadership for educators and explore some powerful tools that help provide answers such as Storify, Twitter, Google Tools, Today's Meet, Padlet, Edmodo, Voxer, Touchcast, YouTube and others. Tell your school's story, get your good news out, and bring your communication with your school communities to a new level in a way that's safe, manageable, and user friendly. Regardless of your current level of expertise with these tools, you will learn something new to bring back to and start using right away!

Revitalizing Collaborative Data Teams

MARCH 3 | WHITESBORO CSD

Whitesboro CSD, 65 Oriskany Blvd., Whitesboro

Karen Kemp and Job Thomas, Measurement, Inc.

Successful data teams are those that strengthen a school's capacity to improve student learning. This session promises to spark new life into your data team by demonstrating how to infuse inquiry, focused analysis, and reflective dialogue into a collaborative process. Learn how to choose and use protocols to facilitate the review of data at all levels and support instructional decision making.

Local Practitioners Sharing Local Best Practices

Unclog the RTI Process to Meet the Needs of ALL Students

MARCH 8 | ARLINGTON CSD

Titusville Intermediate School, 128 Meadow Lane, Poughkeepsie

Dan Shornstein and Allison Lauchaire, Arlington CSD

Learn results-based ELA and math interventions based on power standards. Examples of progress monitoring systems, intervention clinics, and enrichment activities for advanced learners will all be explored. Ways to use community resources to build in a school-wide daily I/E block to meet the needs of all students will be shared. Attendees are invited to observe the intervention block in action at 2:15 pm prior to the workshop. Contact dshornstein@acsdcny.org to arrange.

Bringing Collaborative Leadership to Life In Your School

MARCH 9 | ARLINGTON CSD

Arlington High School, 1157 NY-55, Lagrangeville

Paul Fanuele, Arlington CSD

Gone are the days of isolation when teachers and administrators only focused on their own office or classroom. Today, leaders and teachers need to partner to multiply learning. This interactive workshop will explore the most current ideas oratively lead professional development that multiplies learning for all.

How Data Driven Instruction Can Rejuvenate Teachers: See It to Believe It!

MARCH 9 | ERIE 1 BOCES

Room B2A, 355 Harlem Rd., West Seneca

Amy Piper, Fredonia CSD

See how one school in Western NY used data to rejuvenate teachers, prioritize instruction, and improve teacher morale. Fredonia took a look at data to bring teachers together, collaborate on instruction, and bring creativity to the ELA and math modules, with increased trust, improved parent communication, and better student outcomes.

Cultivating Teachers' Professional Growth with the EdCamp Model

MARCH 10 | CARMEL CSD

Carmel High School, 30 Fair St., Casey Hall (use front door), Carmel

Janet Warden, Carmel CSD and Lizzette Cintron, Wappingers CSD

The goal of this session is to share how the EDCamp model can become the format where teachers get inspired by their colleagues and share their talents and passions. Learn how to develop norms of collaboration, empower teachers, and use technology to implement an EDCamp in your own district.

Blended Learning Jump Start Workshop

MARCH 10 | BROOME TIOGA BOCES

Johnson City Learning Center, Conference Room, 500-502 Main St., Johnson City

Jay Morris and Chris Cappelletti, Cuba Rushford CSD

This workshop will describe the ways students in the Cuba Rushford School District are using blended learning to increase their learning and achievement. Participants will understand how Moodle, iTunes U, and other strategies are working in varied classroom settings.

Disruptive Innovation: Connected Learning That Works!

MARCH 15 | FARMINGDALE CSD

Howitt Middle School, 70 Vancott Ave., Farmingdale

Dr. Bill Brennan

Learn what's trending and expanding exponentially in new leadership and classroom instruction delivery: blended learning, digital communication, flipped learning, and professional networks. This highly informative workshop is a primer on everything you need to know NOW to prepare for the sea change brought on by true technology integration.

TO REGISTER, VISIT:
WWW.SAANYS.ORG
AND CLICK ON PROFESSIONAL LEARNING