

Responding to School Crises:

Legal Responsibilities and Best Practices

April 19, 2016; 8 am - 1 pm
at Plainview Holiday Inn
215 Sunnyside Blvd
Plainview, NY 11803

This workshop will help school administrators, counselors, security personnel, mental health professionals, and parents, understand how to respond to various school crises that could impact student physical or mental well being.

8 am - 8:30 am	Coffee and Registration
8:30 am - 8:45 am	Welcome and Sponsor Introduction - David Nash
8:45 am - 9:45 am	Lessons From Sandy Hook - Nicole Hockley, Speaker from Sandy Hook Promise (learn more at www.sandyhookpromise.org)
9:45 am - 10:30 am	Responding to Mass Violence in Schools, Part 1 - In the Moment, Anthony Pantaleno, Ph.D., Coordinator, LISPAN (Learn more at www.drpanaleno.com)
10:30 am - 11 am	Breakfast Break
11 am - 11:45 am	Responding to Mass Violence in Schools, Part 2 - The Aftermath and Prevention, Anthony Pantaleno, Ph.D. (www.drpanaleno.com)
11:45 am - 11:55 am	Break
11:55 am - 12:55 pm	Responding to Mental Health Crises - Debbie Caputo, LEA Project Coordinator, Youth Mental Health First Aid, Western Suffolk BOCES (Learn more at www.mentalhealthfirstaid.org)
12:55 pm - 1 pm	Wrap Up

Fee: $150

Register at www.legaloneny.org

Please Bring Your Device to This Workshop!

Follow us

