

Lessons Learned 3.0

Experienced administrators sharing their hard-earned wisdom

February 27, 2019 | 4:30-6:00pm

SAANYS Headquarters

Join some of our seasoned school leaders who will share their hard-won wisdom on the kinds of dicey relationships and situations that we all face: How do you handle negative factions among faculty that try to undermine good work? What if you and your superintendent/board differ on tenure recommendations? What if you are a new administrator drowning in paperwork and stuck in interminable meetings that keep you away from the things that matter most?

Current and aspiring administrators are invited to attend this panel discussion focused on these kinds of situations that are very common, challenging, and timeless for school leaders. This event is not about the latest technology, it's about the lessons learned regarding leadership, relationships, and navigating challenges that demand reasoned and thoughtful response.

Please note: Although the format will be similar to the previous events, the scenarios are new. So if you attended in previously, we hope to see you again!

Here's what previous participants had to say:

"Having access to the wealth of knowledge and experience on the panel was awesome! The best part was practical advice and finally feeling like I'm not alone!"

"It was inexpensive, and after work hours – otherwise I wouldn't have been able to come. I appreciated the advice about scheduling one's time."
