Destigmatizing Mental Health: Best Practices for Creating a Comforting School Environment

Online: Aug. 4-5, 2020

Program Description: As school boards and districts continue their search for solutions to the increasingly apparent problem of students with mental-health-related challenges, NYSIR's special 2020 symposium, Destigmatizing Mental Health - Best Practices for Creating a Comforting School Environment, offers education professionals the opportunity to hear from experts on strategies for creating socio-emotional learning; implementing restorative practices; preventing suicide; and preparing for training mandated by Erin's Law.

Topics to be Discussed:

- Best practices for school mental health programs
- Choose Love - Social and emotional learning for students and educators
- Restorative practices in school communities
- Creating 'suicide-safer' schools: building social emotional wellness and resiliency
- A voice for the voiceless - Erin's Law
- Innovative school mental health programs

Symposium Registration:

To register, please email Krystal Allen at kallen@nysir.org with the names of attendees and school district by July 24. Links to symposium sessions will be sent the week of July 27. Please indicate if you need CTLE credit. A CTLE Request Form will be sent to you. Professional certificate holders can earn up to nine hours of CTLE credit.
