

SAANYS SPECIAL EVENT

SEL INSTRUCTION FROM THE INSIDE-OUT

How the 7 Habits are helping Leader in Me schools adapt and overcome in these challenging times

A Leadership Conversation with Sean Covey

This fall, all of you will be called upon to support students, staff, and families both socially and emotionally as we return to school, regardless of what form that may take. Don't miss this special opportunity to meet Sean Covey and learn how your leadership and the well-being of your school communities can be bolstered by work around the 7 Habits. You will come away informed and inspired.

New York Times bestselling author and FranklinCovey Education Practice Leader Sean Covey says the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People are at their best when there's a job to be done. In thousands of Leader in Me schools, that job includes ensuring students and staff have the social-emotional competencies they need to succeed. In this season of disruption and uncertainty, these skills — embedded in the 7 habits — have never been more critical. Join Sean and learn how the 7 Habits can help you and your students:

- Focus on what you can influence
- Prioritize what's most important
- Preserve and deepen relationships with your families and friends
