

Supporting School Leaders with Special Education Responsibilities

Please join us for a four-part virtual series specifically designed to support general education school leaders with special education issues in their school or district. The sessions are presented by SAANYS member practitioners with extensive special education leadership experience, and designed to be engaging, practical, and informative. The topics are those that members who are general education leaders have requested. All sessions are from 4-5:30 pm.

Changing Culture and Mindsets: Inclusion and Co-Teaching
